Investment Opportunity – Exceptional Rustic Land in Campanillas An impressive rustic plot of 79,400 square meters is for sale in Campanillas, ideal for those looking to develop a rural tourism project, a nature retreat, or simply expand an existing property. This estate is located just behind the charming property at Calle Violeta 36. Situated in a peaceful and private setting, the plot offers numerous possibilities and is perfect for countryside activities or rural tourism. With its ample space and natural surroundings, it's ideal for building stables, developing a cooperative community, or creating facilities focused on sustainable living and rural tourism. Its proximity to Málaga city center allows for a perfect blend of rural tranquility and easy access to urban amenities just minutes away. Whether you envision a haven for nature lovers, an eco-friendly farm, or a luxury equestrian center, this land offers the space, privacy, and potential to bring your project to life. Given the ongoing development in the area and its increasing demand, this is a unique opportunity to invest in one of Málaga's most promising regions. Please note that any project must obtain the appropriate permits from the Málaga City Council and the Regional Government of Andalusia. Contact us today and discover how to turn your vision into reality on this spectacular piece of land.
