The villa is not merely a home; it is a meticulously crafted sanctuary designed to offer an unparalleled living experience on the revered Costa del Sol.

Benahavís, often referred to as the 'Dining Room of the Costa del Sol,' is a charming mountain village renowned for its exceptional gastronomy, picturesque white-washed streets, and vibrant local culture. Nestled just a short drive from the bustling marinas of Puerto Banús, the sophisticated boutiques of Marbella, and the pristine sandy beaches, it offers the perfect balance of tranquil natural beauty and convenient access to the region's most coveted amenities. Monte Mayor, itself a beacon of luxury and privacy, further enhances this appeal, providing residents with an exclusive lifestyle amidst protected natural landscapes, yet within easy reach of world-class golf courses, international schools, and fine dining establishments. This villa's location truly offers the best of both worlds: a peaceful, luxurious retreat with the vibrant energy of Southern Spain at your fingertips.

The main house is a testament to spacious luxury, featuring four generously proportioned ensuite bedrooms, each conceived as a private haven. These tranquil spaces are intelligently designed to capture the spectacular views and abundant natural light, ensuring every awakening is met with beauty. High ceilings, expansive windows, and premium materials define these private quarters, offering comfort, elegance, and personal retreat. Beyond the main accommodation, a completely separate guest apartment provides ideal, self-contained living space. With its own bedroom and comfortable lounge area, it offers perfect autonomy for visiting friends and family, live-in staff, or even potential for private rental, ensuring comfort and privacy for all.

Outdoor living at this villa is nothing short of spectacular, transforming the surrounding landscape into an extension of the home. A charming BBQ area and an elegant gazebo stand as the focal point for al fresco dining and entertaining, inviting memorable gatherings under the Spanish sun or stars. Complementing these are a myriad of additional terraces strategically placed to offer diverse zones for relaxation, sunbathing, or quiet contemplation, each providing a unique perspective of the mesmerizing sea and mountain vistas. The crown jewel of the exterior is undoubtedly the captivating infinity pool. Appearing to merge seamlessly with the horizon, it offers a refreshing escape and an incomparable setting to bask in the glorious Costa del Sol climate, all while gazing upon an endless panorama of natural beauty.

The lower level of this extraordinary villa is dedicated entirely to leisure, wellness, and entertainment, establishing it as a true private resort within your own home. Here, a stylish, fully equipped bar area provides the perfect setting for sophisticated cocktails and social gatherings. Adjacent to this, an expansive entertainment space complete with a professional pool table promises endless hours of fun and friendly competition.
