Spacious apartment with terrace and sea views, 200 meters from the beach In the heart of El Palo, just 200 meters from the beach, this apartment retains the feel of a well-established home, spacious and full of light. A home for those seeking space, tranquility, and proximity to the sea, in a neighborhood with its own unique character. It has four bedrooms, perfect for a large family or for those who need space to work or create. The kitchen is separate and fully equipped, designed for leisurely cooking. The spacious and bright living-dining room opens onto a large terrace where the sea shines through, inviting you to sit and read, eat, or simply pass the time. It has two bathrooms, a parking space, an elevator, and access for people with reduced mobility.
